SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Everyone is invited to attend the services in South Bend churches. All seats are free. Regular as well as special services are announced below. Pastors are invited by The News-Times management to send the paper outlines of their Sunday sermons that they may be read by the 60,000 News-Times readers in the Monday editions. Through this medium the sermons can be addressed to a congregation which is even more than city-wide.

Elkhart Judge Sentences Tramp-May Festival is Given Indoors.

ELKHART, Ind., May 29.-George H. Perron, a tramp, who was arrested Wednesday night charged with burglarizing a Big Four caboose in the local yard was found guilty in the city court Friday and sentenced to six months at the state penal farm. The fact that Perron had a sweater and some papers that had been stolen from the caboose, and that his hands were cut-glass in the cupola having been broken to enter the caboose-led to his conviction. Cushions stolen from the caboose have not been re-

Both assert they expect to handle only the small varieties of fireworks, but no rockets or candles. The ordinance regulating the storing, selling and firing of fireworks, passed in 1911, prohibits the firing of fireworks displays except by permission of the mayor obtained at least thirty days previous to the day or days the firing is to be allowed. The ordinance further declares that no person shall store or sell fireworks without the permission of the mayor and that applications for permission to sell must be filed with the chief of the fire department not less than 29 days prior to that named by the mayor as that on which they may be fired.
